LILLIAN RUSSELL

Handicap at Moncrief Complimentary to Noted Actress.

Jacksonville, Fla., January 10.—The feature of to-day's splendid card at Moncrief was the running of the Lillian Russell Handicap over a disance of one mile. Dr. Holzberg with Janz up, was the favorite, although First Premium was played heavily, but finished third. Dr. Holzberg showed in front when rounding the stretch, and easily held it to the finish. Sintan finished second, and rewarded many who had played him for a place.

WILL NOT ALLOW FIGHT.

Pittsburg, January 16.—Sam Langford will not be permitted in Pittsburg January 18. Director of Public Safety John M. Moren says he will refuse to issue a permit for the fight because the man selected to face the negro would not, in his mind, stand any kind of a chance.

Montant Jack Sullivan was the fighter scheduled to meet Langford, and the bout had been arranged by the Empire Athetic Club. Langford is in Memphis, where tonight he fought the "Dixle Kid."

Moren said that Sullivan had done nothing to indicate that he would give the negro even an argument, and that the public would be the greatest sufferers were the bout to be a reptition of the one between Langford and Mike Schreck a few weeks ago.
